Senator Birkholz Sworn Into Michigan State Senate Represents the 24th Senate District during the 92nd Legislative Session

LANSING – Senator Patricia Birkholz, R- Saugatuck Township, today was sworn into the Michigan State Senate as Senator of the 24th District, during a ceremony at the Michigan State Capitol.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to serve the residents and families of Allegan, Barry and Eaton Counties, as a state Senator. I will always treasure the experience throughout my life,” Birkholz said. “I will continue to work hard to ensure that the concerns of the residents of the 24th District are heard in Lansing.”

All 38 members of the Michigan Senate were sworn in by Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice Maura D. Corrigan.

Birkholz will serve as the Chair of the Senate Committee on Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs and Vice Chair of the Local, Urban and State Affairs Committee. She will also be a member of the Gaming and Casino Oversight and Technology and Energy committees.
